Course Objectives	SOFL 102 is a CEFR B2-level English for Business and Academic Purposes course designed for faculty students. The course is offered during the 16-week Spring Semester and includes a minimum of one hour of instruction per week. Throughout the semester, students are expected to further develop their English language proficiency in line with the CEFR B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). SOFL 102 constitutes the second stage of the English for Academic Purposes (EAP) programme offered to faculty students, building on the competencies developed in the preceding course. The course aims to equip students with the academic and professional English language skills necessary for their future careers in both academic and professional contexts. As students of creative arts and design, they are expected to communicate effectively in English as a global language, whether they pursue academic pathways, enter the international job market, or establish their own professional practices or businesses. As part of the course, students will engage with the Step Up Online Courses, where they will focus on Business English and Skills for Employability through a self-paced digital learning platform. Student progress on the platform will be regularly monitored and assessed by the course instructor as part of the overall course requirements.
Course Learning Outcomes	The syllabus implements a two sided approach to emphasis these skills. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • With teacher-sourced material students will focus on Academic English. Reading and understanding texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday language. • Listening and understanding main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters, current affairs, and topics of personal or professional interests. • Communicate effectively in academic and professional context • Collaborate productively in diverse teams • Critical thinking; analyzing and evaluating information • Develop leadership skills and techniques

ASSESSMENT DETAILS AND EVALUATION CRITERIA:

Final Grades will be determined based on the Course Learning Activities, including assignments, the Midterm Exam, and the Final Exam, in accordance with the Education and Examination Regulations of the university. Students will complete a face to face Midterm Exam worth 40% of the overall grade and a Final Exam worth 60%. The Midterm Exam consists of 20% academic writing (essay) and 80% reading, listening, and scaffolding tasks (Step Up). The Final Exam includes 20% video presentation (academic component), 60% reading, listening, and scaffolding tasks (Step Up), and 20% academic writing (essay). Students who successfully complete all 12 modules and meet the assessment thresholds (above 70% in each module and above 80% overall) will be awarded a Pearson-Credly digital badge, which can be displayed on LinkedIn profiles or resumes. This internationally recognized badge certifies the student’s achievement at the designated CEFR/GSE level of the course and is accepted worldwide as evidence of English language proficiency.
